

Administrative Law Section Council Meeting
June 13, 2002

Location: Conference Room, Clarion Hotel, Ocean City, Maryland

Present: Jody Plymyer, Laura McWeeney, Robert Drummer, Hon. Glenn Harrell, Hon. Patricia Mitchell, Hon. John Hardwicke, Jack Gohn, Bruce Martin

Chair Jody Plymyer called the meeting to order at 8:30 a.m. She began by introducing the outgoing and incoming officers of the Section Council. She also briefly reviewed the Section's activities of the year just ended, and thanked the various committees of the Council, as well as those who assisted with the session with the University of Baltimore law students held under the Section's auspices.

The Minutes of the April 30, 2002 meeting were approved as submitted.

The Treasurer's Report was delivered in summary fashion: with the present meeting, the Section's appropriation was expended.

The following year's Officers were elected: Chair - Laura McWeeney; Vice-Chair - Jack Gohn; Past Chair - Jody Plymyer; Secretary - Hon Patricia Mitchell; Treasurer - Robert Drummer.

The Council members for the following year were enumerated. For the 2000-03 term: Elissa Levan, Hon. Joseph H. H. Kaplan, and Robert Levan. For the 2001-04 term: Hon. Barbara Kerr Howe, Richard Romine, Hon. Glenn T. Harrell, Hon. Kenneth Masters, Hon. Stephen Johnson, Cathleen Ward, Andrew Baida, Michele McDonald, Judy Bressler. For the 2002-05 term: Nathan J. Greenbaum, Robert Zarnoch, Hon. John Hardwicke, Hon. Ronald D. Schiff, Ralph Tyler, and Yvette Diamond.

The new Chief Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings, Thomas Dewberry, was introduced.

There was an affectionate and humorous presentation of "going away" presents to the retiring Chief Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings, John Hardwicke.

The meeting then adjourned so that the members and the public might participate in a program "50 Ways to Lose Your License: A look in the rearview mirror of adjudicating traffic law," at which the presenters were Anne S. Ferro, MVA Administrator, John P. Kudel, Esq., Hon. Mike Wallace of the Office of Administrative Hearings, and the Hon. Patti Mitchell of the District Court for Montgomery County.
